The kettle was boiling all the time at the Polo Grounds yesterday afternoon, and the New Yorks beat the Pittsburgs in a game that had a good deal of loose playing but was brimming with interest. All of the ingredients of a rousing ruction were there, and though the cold wind affected the players and accounted in part for misplays and poor pitching the bustle and excitement of the bout were to the spectators an antidote for ... Arctic atmosphere.

Pitchers were hurried in and out of the box in rapid succession, and of the six used—three on each side—only one, Mathewson, left the battlefield with honor. Mathewson, left the battlefield with honor. Mathewson, and the game for the New Yorks when they were in a ticklish situation. Wiltse's loss of control had filled the bases with nobody out. An alarm signal was sent out for Mathewson, and when he appeared in the offing a glad cry of welcome greeted him. "He kin if anybody kin, "was the comment of the cranks, and sure enough Matty held the Pirates to one score. McGinnity lasted one inning, Wiltse five and part of another, Willis one and a fraction and Lynch five and a fraction. The New Yorks fell down hard in fielding but won the game with their bats. Seymour led with the wand. He jostled the orb for a home run with one on base, and his two singles later batted in two more runs. Consequently his bludgeon was responsible for four runs, and he more than atoned for an error which gave two tallies to the Pirates. Rowerman whacked out a two bagger, and bettin was to the front with a most timely hit, which earned him a pardon for an expensive foozle in the tield.

McGinnity worked stiffly and in the first ining hit Hallman and passed Clarke. Hits hit has a part on the second. Tomy Leach tried to score from second on Willis's out, Corooran to Sowerman. It was beautiful running on Leach's part and a bold a man, who had doubled, and Dahlen, who had walked.

Strang took first on four balls in the third ming, Devlin sacrificed and Soynour singled and Soynour singled and Soynour singled and soored Strang. Hans Wagner was a frost at the bat, striking out twice with men on bases and another time furnishing a feeble by with two envoys under way. In the fifth onever, the Dutchman was safe on a fumble and wild throw by Devlin, thic after Clarke had walked. Clarke, incidentally, made three runs and showed more head work in inside tectics than all the rest of his team combined, teach alone excepted. The lifth inning was one of error opulence for New York, Bresnans supplementing Devlin's bad throw with a repeat abortive fling. The bases were filled, and Clarke and Wagner scored when Seymour misjudged and muffed Abbaticchio's fly. There was a peculiar play on Wiltse in the second section of the fifth. Wiltse fanned and Gibson took the ball on the pickup, Wiltse ran for first and Gibson, instead of throwing there, rolled the ball to Leach, recating the impression that he had taken the strikeout in the regulation way. Gibson's silly play amounted to nothing, as Leach them to Nealon in time to retire Wiltse. The Pittsburgs tied the score in the seventh clymer placed a neat single in left, and Clark and Wagner walked. This was where Wiltse was dismissed and Mathewson summoned. Abbaticchio grounded to Bowerman and cored Clymer. Clarke and Wagner advanced on the play, and with Nealon up they ried the squeeze. Nealon failed to hit the ball, which gave Bresnahan an easy chance to tag Clarke. Clarke interposed a kick of some cort. With two out Mathewson made short work of Nealon through the medium of strikes. The New Yorks ravished Lynch's pitching in the seventh and all after two were in the discard. Mathewson oracked out a single. So did Shannon. Strang was passed. This filled the bases. With two and three the call on Devlin, that youth hit hard to right centre. Hallman, who seemed unable to Judge balls in centre, couldn't diagnose the ball's flight and Clymer missed it after a good try. Mathewson and Shannon scored. Strang tallied on Seymour's hit, and Devlin came through on a wild pitch.

Capt. Clarke worked a passage in the ninth on a base on balls, a steal, Bresnahan's bad enth and all after two were in the arcorlyn, 1; Chicago (N. L.), 0—First Game.

It's a long time between wins in Brooklyn, but yesterday the lengthy lane of defeats had a turning. The Brooklyns won the first game of a double header from the Chicagos, making one run and shutting out the Cubs.
Fine pitching was done by both Rucker and Pflester. Maloney made the only run of the game in the first inning. He reached first base on four balls, second on Casey's sacrifice and came in on a bad throw to second by Kling to head off Jordan, who had walked—It was not until the ninth inning of the second game that the Chicagos scored, so that the Brooklyn pitchers shut them out for seventeen straight innings. The Brooklyns met with the same treatment, as they failed to score in the second game. They made six hits to Chicago's three in the second game, but the six hits were all wasted. After Chance had sauntered in the ninth he was forced by Steinfeldt. Hofman tripled and scored Steiny, and a poor throw to the plate
by Jordan registered Hofy. The score:

CLEVELAND, Ohio, May 11.—The Naps won, 6 to 2, to-day from the New Yorks despite Hess's wildness, making it three straight victories for Cleveland. The Naps put up a star fielding game, and to this largely was due their victory. Doyle pitched good ball after he got started, but Cirrifith took him out when he saw a chance to win. An avalanche of hits off Brockett, who succeeded him, clinched the contest for the Naps. Bradley was benched in the fifth for objecting to Evans's decision on balls and strikes. Chesbro, looking fine and in condition, and McGuire joined the New Yorks this morning.

ROOSEVELT LEAGUE GAMES. Public School No. 40 Scores Heavily in Belay Racef. The Roosevelt Athletic League held its fourth annual indoor games at the Seventy-first Regiment armory last night and the building was packed to the doors. This organization is composed of Public Schools Nos. 14, 18, 19, 27, 40 and 49 and the brothers, sisers, mothers, fathers and all the relatives of every boy who competed were much i of every boy who competed were much in evidence. Such crack schools as Nos. 18 and 40 being members of the league attracted considerable interest to the affair, especially the former school as the winner of the public schools champlonship in 1905 and 1906.

For the point honors there was keen rivalry and partisanship ran high as the eveuts were reeled off. Early in the Iray, however, School No. 40 scored heavily. In the 50 yard dash the wearers of the crimson and white got away with all the four places, and in the relays they showed exceptional strength, winning everything.

The armory was gayly decorated with the flags and colors of the schools but quite the spectacular feature of the night was a singing contest. Five of the schools ried for a prize, which was awarded to School 49, which rendered "Stars of the Summer Night" with artistic effect. School 19 gave "Humpty Dumpty," a rather difficult piece of phrasing, and many thought it was well enough done to earn first money, but the judicial department thought different. The decision pleased the crowd.

YALE SPRING REGATTA. Varsity Has Hard Work to Beat College Crew-Freshmen Win.

New Haven, May 11.—For the first time since 1888 Yale's boat club held the annual spring regatta on New Haven Harbor this afternoon, the varsity defeating the college crew and the freshmen the Springfield Training School. A stiff northwest breeze made the course rough and the time slow, but the oarsmen put up some stubborn racing. The varsity, seated as it was to have rowed at Annapolis, had hard work to come in three-quarters of a length ahead of the college crew.

rength of open water, but the Springhelo crew closed up to half a length on their spurt for the finish. Here they rowed in practically smooth water. The varsity rowed in splendid form, but the stroke was not over thirty at any time owing to the rough water. Crew A in the four oared varsity race went to pieces twenty yards from the finish. Summary:

Exhibition Race—Won by University crew, College crew second. Time, 42% seconds.
Freshmen vs. Springfield High School—Won by Freshmen by three-fourths of a length. Time, 4 minutes 35 seconds.

The New Jersey boys won first place in six Preparatory School, with ten points, came next.
No little of the credit for the victory of the Newark school should go to Pritchard, who took first place in both of the hurdle races. His time for the high hurdles was 171-5 seconds and for the 220 yard race, 282-5 seconds. All of the races were well contested and some of the times were fairly good, although the rain that had been falling slittle morning made the track slow.

BRYANT BOYS IN FRONT. They Win Queens Borough Champtonship for Second Time.

The third annual championship at track and field sports for high schools in the Queens borough was held yesterday at Celtic Park. borough was held yesterday at Celtic Park. Five schools—Flushing, Bryant, Newtown, Jamaics and Richmond Hill—had teams and there was an exciting time over the tussle for the point, especially as the perpetual challenge cup presented by Borough President Bermel went to the winaer. Bryant School finally won by a big margin, and it was the second victory of this school for the prize. The conditions of the trophy for permanent ownership is that it must be won three times in succession, and as Bryant has won it twice the chances of owning it outright look rosy for the Long Island City institution.

There was a big crowd present, the bulk being girls from the different schools, and they shouted and screamed wildly for their coed competitors. All through the competition was keen, except in the 120 yard hurdle, where "Jamaica school secured all the points. The high wind interfered greatly with the jumpers, sprinters and pole vaulters.

ROCKAWAY HUNTING CLUB. Princeton's Team Second, Beaten by 25 Targets-C. H. King of the Winning

Team Takes Cup for High Score-

Westchester Club Defeats Rockaway. Teams representing Yale, Princeton, Harvard and the University of Pennsylvania shot yesterday for the intercollegiate champion-ship. Yale won. In this team are five shooters who have made good records against many of the crack teams of the country, and they had everything almost their own way. The score was 192 to 167 by Princeton, 146 by Harvard and 148 by Pennsylvania. A cup offered by Charles F. Veau for the high gun was won by C. H. King of the Yale team, who scored 43 out of a possible 50, which was re-markably good shooting under the conditions that prevailed yesterday.

The shoot took place on the grounds of the Rockaway Hunting Club at Cedarhurst, and many of the club members and their families filled the shooting house and watched the contest. The weather was fine and cool. Early in the match the sun shone brightly, but later it clouded somewhat. The wind was strong and gusty, so that the conditions were not favorable to high scores.

Each team was made up of five men and each man shot at fifty targets. The individ-ual score shows how good Yale's team is. F. Gosnell, Jr., and it was beaten by two men on Princeton's team, A. T. McClintock and A. L. Sands; one man on Harvard's team, H. S. Powers, and one man on Pennsylvania's
